

A close-up, vertical photograph of the American flag, showing the stars and stripes. The flag is slightly out of focus, with a warm, golden light from a sunset or sunrise in the background.

Civics & American Government

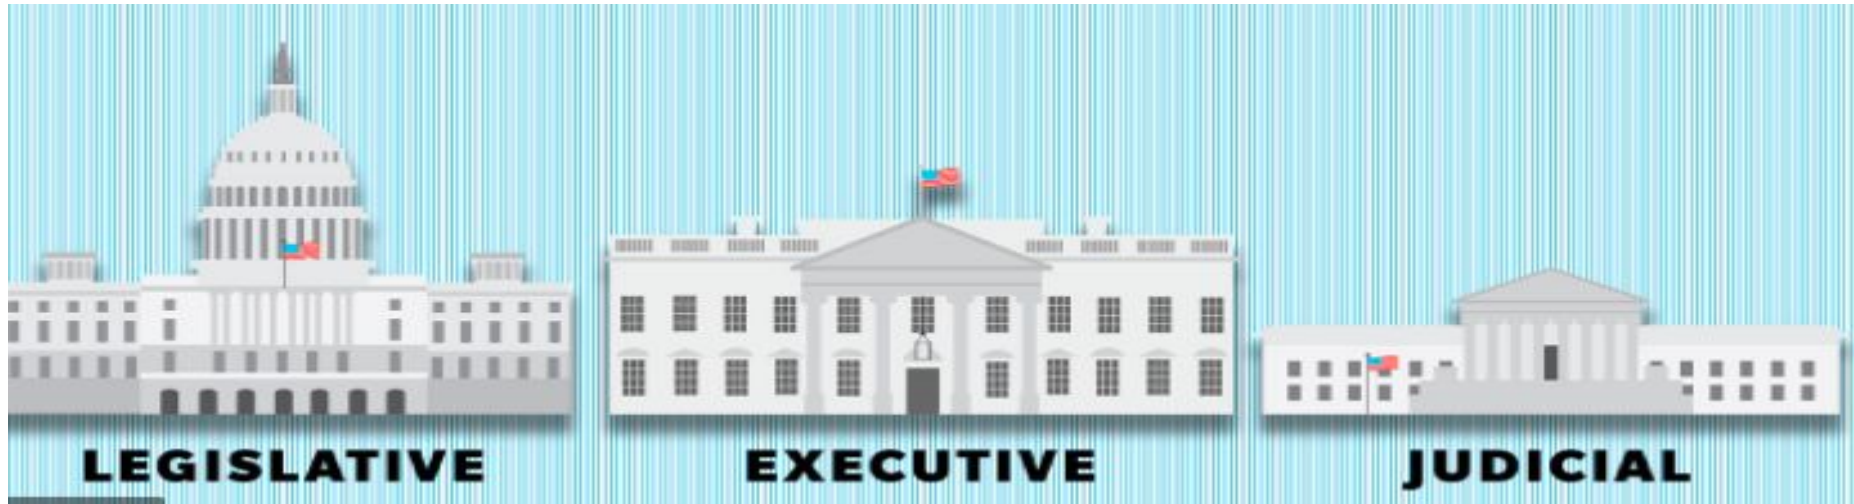

Study Guide for Unit 5 Assessment
Test on Tuesday, 9/10

A close-up, vertical photograph of the American flag, showing the stars and stripes. The flag is slightly out of focus, with a warm, golden light from a sunset or sunrise in the background.

Try to answer each question, then check your thinking on the next slide!

Checks and Balances is when the 3 branches of government have different powers so no one has more control.

Separation of powers is when the 3 branches of government have different powers so no one has more control.

The federal government can amend the Constitution.

AMEND means to change, so the government can make changes to the Constitution.

The branch of the federal government that is led by the President of the United States is the branch.

Choices: legislative

executive

judicial

The branch of the federal government that is led by the President of the United States is the executive branch.

The branch of the federal government that makes the laws is the _____ branch.

Choices: legislative

executive

judicial

The branch of the federal government that makes the laws is the legislative branch.

The _____ branch of the federal government is led by the United States Supreme Court.

Choices: legislative

executive

judicial

The judicial branch of the federal government is led by the United States Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court

The _____ is a public official that leads/works in the executive branch of the state government.

The governor is a public official that leads/works in the executive branch of the state government.

The legislative branch of the Georgia state government is also called the _____.

The legislative branch of the Georgia state government is also called the Georgia General Assembly.

John was in a Georgia court on trial. He did not think his trial was fair. The _____ branch of the Georgia government can review his trial.

Choices: legislative executive judicial

John was in a Georgia court on trial. He did not think his trial was fair. The judicial branch of the Georgia government can review his trial.

Determining if laws are fair is an example of the powers of the _____ branch of government.

Choices: legislative

executive

judicial

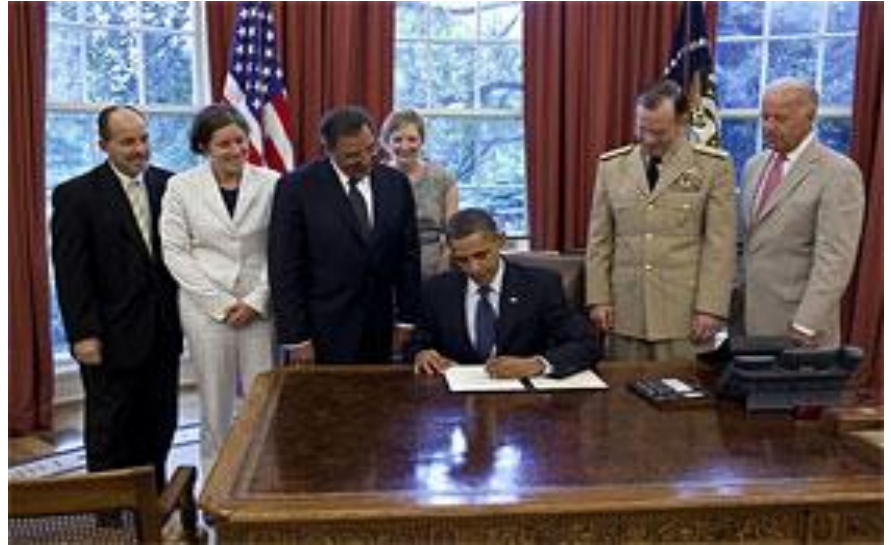

Determining if laws are fair is an example of the powers of the judicial branch of government.

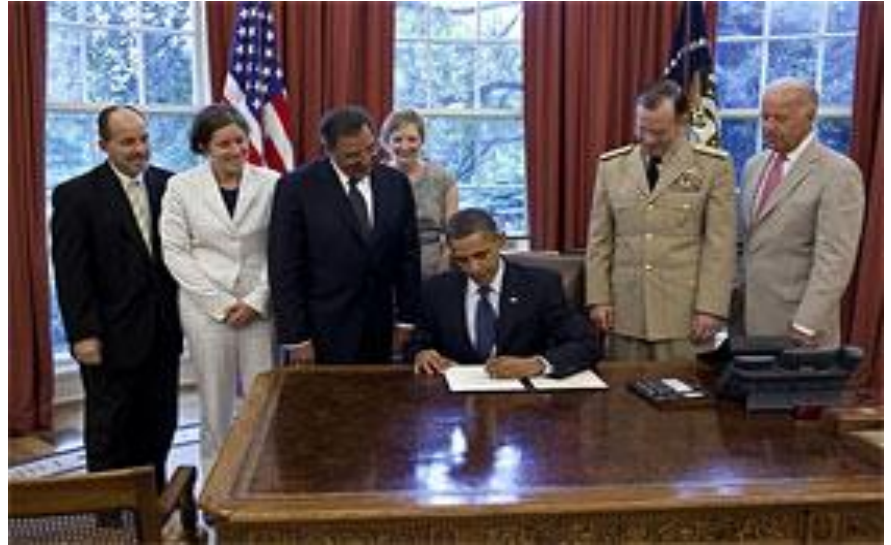

The MAIN responsibility of the executive branch of the United States government is to_____ laws.

Choices: make enforce interpret

The MAIN responsibility of the executive branch of the United States government is to enforce laws.

Remember, to ENFORCE a law means to make it happen, like making sure there are leaders and money for the law.

The _____ branch makes the laws at the national/federal and state levels.

Choices: legislative executive judicial

The legislative branch makes the laws at the national/federal and state levels.

Let's talk about the COMMON GOOD!

The common good is promoting what is best for _____ people.

Choices: a few some most

DO WHAT IS RIGHT, NOT WHAT IS EASY

Let's talk about the COMMON GOOD!

The common good is promoting what is best for MOST people.

Choices: a few some most

DO WHAT IS RIGHT, NOT WHAT
IS EASY

Laws that promote the _____ are types of laws that the United States government should pass to protect the rights of people and to help those in need.

Laws that promote the common good are types of laws that the United States government should pass to protect the rights of people and to help those in need.

What word describes when you give your time to help others without being paid?

Choices: working being forced to volunteering

What word describes when you give your time to help others without being paid?

Volunteering!

This is a way to promote the common good of everyone.

Not a question, but important information:
What are some of the benefits/good things about VOLUNTEERING? You can:

- Make the community a better place to live
- Provide opportunities to learn, meet people, and improve yourself
- Satisfaction of making a difference in someone else's life

Bruno is now 18 years old, and there is a problem in his community. He can now _____ for people who will listen to the members of the community.

Bruno is now 18 years old, and there is a problem in his community. He can now vote for people who will listen to the members of the community.

Important fact!

Only people who are 18 or older can vote! When you turn 18, make sure you register, or sign up, to vote so you can choose people you think will be great leaders.

Citizens of the city of Lawrenceville want a new dog park. They take steps such as meeting to discuss the plan and emailing local leaders. They are working together to solve a _____ problem.

Choices: state county community

Citizens of Lawrenceville want a new dog park. They take steps such as meeting to discuss the plan and emailing local leaders. They are working together to solve a community problem.

